

Scotopia Press dark distortions I can you see in the dark?

- Dark Distortions I
- Presented by Scotopia Press
- Edited by Molly S. Feese and C. D. Allen
- Anthology, dark fiction & horror
- ISBN: 978-0-9778262-9-2
- Format: 6 * 9 Trade Paperback
- 594 pages/587 numbered pages
- $21.95

Dark Distortions I is a new kind of anthology. Not just horror and not just short stories. In a market that too often pigeonholes readers into prioritizing their tastes, a natural question arises. Why? As everything from fast food to insurance is becoming more customer friendly allowing you to choose everything from pickles to identity theft coverage, why couldn't the small press answer in a similar fashion? We are readers and we wanted variety. Dark Distortions I contains dark fiction for adult readers varying in length and style from poetry to novellas.

With over 580 prose heavy pages, twenty-eight authors and two featured young authors there should be something for everyone who understands that rose colored glasses may simply be splattered with blood.

In other firsts, Dark Distortions also includes a Young Author's Section, giving voice to the future of our entertainment and allowing two young authors to experience the joys of a by line and readership.

With easy to access Internet presence, listings in major on-line market places and marketing support for each author, Scotopia Press is striving to obtain the best chance for success in its debut edition. We invite you to experience our exordium and learn why we believe that with care comes quality and with dreams come nightmares.

Art and contributors available upon request to:

Scotopia Press

Scotopia@gmail.com

www.scotopiapress.com

(402)-261-4530

4201 EDISON CIR., STE 1 LINCOLN, NE 68504